82 YEARS
OF CHRIST-CENTERED EDUCATION

ABOUT KINGSWAY HIGH SCHOOL

Kingsway High School is owned and operated by the East Jamaica Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The school is part of a global network of over 9,589 schools, colleges and universities operated by the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

Established on the belief that each child is educable and can develop to his or her potential, Kingsway will provide the opportunity for every child to develop spiritually, intellectually and physically through the process of a Christ-centered education.

The school, founded on January 10, 1943, will celebrate eighty-two (82) years of providing Christ-centered education to the nation's youth. The constituency which this school serves is Kingston and parts of the adjoining parishes of St. Thomas, St. Catherine and St. Andrew. The school is registered with the Independent Schools Unit of the Ministry of Education (MOE).

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Kingsway High School is to provide Christ-centered education for the holistic development of every student; thereby training them to be creative, productive and committed professionals who will be of service to their fellowmen advancing the cause of God.

VISION STATEMENT

Our school will function as a thriving community of learners empowered by God.

KINGSWAY FAMILY'S CORE VALUES

At Kingsway we live and operate by five (5) core principles:

1 LOVE: We love God and others wholeheartedly, just like Jesus loves us.

2 JUSTICE: We endeavour to be fair to everyone and strive to be reasonable in our treatment of others.

3 INTEGRITY: We think and do what is right at all times, no matter the consequences.

4 EXCELLENCE: We strive to surpass ordinary standards and exceed expectations.

5 DISCIPLESHIP: We build the Kingdom of God by preparing students who will be of service to God and humankind.

KINGSWAY GRAD AT GRAD

Upon graduation from Kingsway, we envision that each student will be:

- ✓ A true disciple of Christ
- ✓ Academically and vocationally sound
- ✓ Committed to a holistic life
- ✓ A world citizen committed to social justice
- ✓ Relentlessly pursuing excellence in all endeavours
